How Can You Help Your Mini Star?

Mini Stars is a parent participation class. It is structured and taught just like a preschool class so that the kids can learn important social concepts, such as waiting their turn, one at a time, working as a group, and being independent. Learning these things can take some extra help and one-on-one attention! It is very important that when participating in a parent-tot class, the parents are actively involved with their child. Not only does this help them learn independence, but it is a great bonding experience for the family! We ask that parents stay with their child through the entire class.
